Gettysburg, 25th November, 1863. HON. EDWARD EVERETT: Dear Sir, On behalf of the Governors of the several States interested in the National Cemetery, I request of you for publication a copy of your Address delivered at the consecration of the grounds on Thursday, the 19th of this month, the proceeds of the sale to be added to the fund for the erection of a monument to the memory of the heroes whose remains are deposited in the cemetery. In performing this official duty, allow me as a citizen of Gettysburg, and in behalf of my fellow-citizens, to express our peculiar satisfaction at that part of your Address, which is devoted to a narrative of the all-important events, that have at once raised this place into permanent importance and celebrity. Knowing as we do that you used great diligence and care to procure as accurate an account as possible of the movements of the two armies in this vicinity, and their positions in the battle on the different days, we regard that portion of your Address as very important and valuable. Whilst its delivery commanded the closest attention of the vast assembly who listened to it, thus giving evidence of their intense interest and entire appreciation, this portion of the Oration, preserved in an authentic form, will descend to posterity as a production of permanent historical value. Allow me also to express my gratification at the tribute paid by you to Major-General Reynolds, in ascribing to his forethought and self-sacrifice the triumph of the two succeeding days. In that well-deserved tribute the historian who shall do justice to the Battle of Gettysburg will undoubtedly concur, pointing to him as the individual to whom our glorious success was in a great degree due.
