

Im a Little Special

IM A LITTLE SPECIAL collects 30 of the best pieces ever written about this sporting legend in an anthology by the greatest about the Greatest. Muhammad Alis story is told by a stellar array of authors, athletes and social commentators, all of them compelled to write about this amazing man. In addition to pieces by Hunter S. Thompson, Tom Wolfe and Norman Mailer, Floyd Patterson defends Alis right to criticise Americas participation in the Vietnam War; Malcolm X explains how he went from entertainer to threat with his declaration as a man of race; Ali himself contributes with some poetry in his famous interview with Playboy magazine; and Gay Talese gives us a front seat on the 1996 ride to Cuba where Ali met Fidel Castro. Spanning four decades and including 16 pages of photographs, IM A LITTLE SPECIAL is the ultimate book about one of the true heroes of the twentieth century.
