The Adventures by John Buchan. Book 4:
1. The Gap in the Curtain; 2. Sick Heart River; 3. The Runagates Club. 1. The Gap in the Curtain: Published - 1932. The Gap in the Curtain is a 1932 novel by John Buchan. It is borderline science fiction. At a country house, five guests gather and are chosen by a brilliant scientist to take part in a shocking experiment which will let them glimpse one year into the future. However, when the experiment takes place, two of the guests see their own obituaries in The Times one year after. Will they be able to change their destinies? Part of the action is autobiographical, including featuring the agonies of a contemporary up and coming politician. 2. Sick Heart River: Published - 1941. Sick Heart River is a novel by Scottish author John Buchan set in Canada. It was published posthumously. Sick Heart River is John Buchan's most powerful novel and his last, completed days before his death. It was published posthumously in 1941. Buchan's rich descriptions of the rugged Canadian Northwest Territories are influenced by his real-life voyage down the Mackenzie River in 1937. At that time, Buchan was Governor-General of Canada. The main character, the lawyer and politician Sir Edward Leithen perhaps the most autobiographical of Buchan's characters has been diagnosed with advanced tuberculosis and has been given a year to live. A former colleague, American John S. Blenkiron, requests help to find his niece's husband, who appears to have flown from his very successful financial career to the Canadian north. Leithen agrees to help. 3. The Runagates Club: Published - 1928. Twelve stories told by members of the Runagates Club. Richard Hanny, hero of The Thirty-nine Steps reappears recounting a trek into the bush in The Green Wildebeest. In Dr. Lartius, John Palliser-Yeates describes an ingenious Secret Service operation during the First World War. A German code is finally
